

Behavioral firing rate at multi-turn stays at 1–5% — replicating #377's behavioral null

First-token $p(\ast)$ of $\sim 10^{-6}$ is far below the sampling threshold at temperature 1.0.

The latent install elevates the marker over a near-zero floor, but emissions stay rare and weakly trigger-gated ($\sim 3\%$ vs $\sim 1\%$).

