

Singleton-A and singleton-B shifts are parallel for near pairs

Median $\cos(\text{shift_A}, \text{shift_B})$ is ~ 0.82 for the surgeon + medical-doctor pair at 1:1, vs ~ 0.32 for paramedic + comedian. The DV1 alignment test is partly mechanical for near pairs.

(shift_A(c), shift_B(c)) across held-out contexts

