

Swapping a far negative for an assistant-cluster-proximal one leaves the never-trained default essentially unchanged — its shielding is positional

