

Cell-level factor coefficients per behavior and pooled

Implant-strength (self-delta) coefficients omitted: the covariate is panel-constant (effective $n = 6$ sources per behavior), so cell-level p-values are anti-conservative; the registered between-source permutation is the binding test (all $p \geq 0.24$).