

cos(b, j) and shadow angle split the joint positive weight at layer 21; nearest-remaining distance is flat

Layer 21; pooled OLS, all predictors entered jointly with arm/seed fixed effects; cos(b, j) and shadow angle are strongly collinear ($r = -0.92$) standardized slope (nats per predictor SD), bystander-clustered 95% CI