

Trained predicate emerges across three probe families with different evidence weight

Contradictory-predicates condition. Reformulation = paraphrased direct question; Canonical-indirect = standard biomedical association; Counter-association = in-context synthetic rule (judge rubric is permissive — see Details).

